

TRANSMITTAL SLIP		DATE
TO: Mr. Coffey
ROOM NO.	BUILDING
REMARKS: <input type="checkbox"/> subparagraphs (3) and (4) were approved by the Travel Policy Committee. After all members had concurred, including DDP/PC, DDP/PC recommended changes prior to authentication. These proposed changes were discussed with all members of the TPC by phone; some were accepted, others were not. Attached are copies of what the TPC had approved, and what was finally signed by the ADDS. We still do not have authentication by DDP, although it was sent to DDP/PC on 18 February. Since this regulation was agreed to by all parties concerned, we sent the authentication copies to both the DDS and the DDP at the same time. Usually, we do not send to the DDS until after the (over)
FROM:
ROOM NO.	BUILDING	EXTENSION

FORM NO. 241
1 FEB 55

REPLACES FORM 36-8
WHICH MAY BE USED.

(47)

STATINTL

Approved For Release 2003/05/05 : CIA-RDP84-00780R003400070021-7

Approved For Release 2003/05/05 : CIA-RDP84-00780R003400070021-7

Alternate Language

(3) Upon retirement while assigned abroad, or upon retirement while assigned within the continental United States by a participant in the CIA [ ] - Organization retirement system) Retirement and Disability System, travel and transportation <sup>expenses</sup> ~~from the~~ from the last post of assignment to the place where the employee will reside in the United States, its possessions or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, including removal and transportation to such place in single lots from each storage point of effects which are in storage (commercial or private). An employee who elects to reside elsewhere will be allowed expenses actually incurred, not to exceed the constructive cost of direct travel and transportation ~~of effects~~ between his last post of assignment and his Permanent Place of Residence as defined in [ ] If he also has effects in storage (commercial or private) which are shipped to the place where he will reside, ~~outside the United States, its possessions~~ <sup>expenses actually incurred</sup> ~~of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico,~~ he will be allowed ~~actual costs~~ not to exceed the constructive cost of transporting these effects, in single lots from each storage point, between either the last post of assignment or the place where the effects are located and his Permanent Place of Residence, whichever is greater. In no case will the combined weight of shipments authorized under the above provisions exceed the appropriate weight limitation prescribed in [ ]

Upon separation abroad for reasons other than retirement, travel and transportation expenses from the last post of assignment to the employee's Permanent Place of Residence as defined in [ ] including removal of effects from storage and delivery to authorized destination, provided the Service Abroad Agreement is not breached. An employee who elects to reside elsewhere will be allowed expenses <sup>actually</sup> incurred not to exceed the constructive cost of direct travel and transportation ~~from the last post of~~

(in single lots, from each storage point, commercial or private, wherever located)

STATINTL

Approved For Release 2003/05/05 : CIA-RDP84-00780R003400070021-7

Approved For Release 2003/05/05 : CIA-RDP84-00780R003400070021-7

S-E-C-R-E-T

25X1

TRAVEL

2. APPLICATION. [No change]

a. TRAVEL AND RELATED SHIPMENT AND STORAGE. [No change]

(1) and (2) [No change]

(3) Upon retirement while assigned abroad, or upon retirement while assigned within the continental United States by a participant in the CIA Retirement and Disability System, travel and transportation expenses from the last post of assignment to the place where the employee will reside in the United States, its possessions or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, including removal and transportation to such place in single lots from each storage point of effects which are in storage (commercial or private). An employee who elects to reside elsewhere will be allowed expenses actually incurred, not to exceed the constructive cost of direct travel and transportation between his last post of assignment and his Permanent Place of Residence as defined in [redacted]. If he also has effects in storage (commercial or private) which are shipped to the place where he will reside, he will be allowed expenses actually incurred not to exceed the constructive cost of transporting these effects, in single lots from each storage point, between either the last post of assignment or the place where the effects are located and his Permanent Place of Residence, whichever is greater. In no case will the combined weight of shipments authorized under the above provisions exceed the appropriate weight limitation prescribed in [redacted].

(4) Upon separation abroad for reasons other than retirement, travel and transportation expenses from the last post of assignment to the employee's Permanent Place of Residence as defined in [redacted] including removal of effects from storage, commercial or private, and their transportation in single lots from each storage point to authorized destination provided the Service Abroad Agreement is not breached. An employee who elects to reside elsewhere will be allowed expenses actually incurred not to exceed the constructive cost of direct travel and transportation to his Permanent Place of Residence.

[No further changes]

DISTRIBUTION: AB

S-E-C-R-E-T

